

REMOVAL INSURANCE WITH “REMOVERS & GENERAL”

The “removers & general” policy is a dedicated insurance policy for removal and storage contractors to cover their customers property against most risks whilst they are moving and storing them. The notes below explain the principles of the insurance, and are for guidance only. They do not form part of the insurance policy. The summary on the reverse of this document contains the principal terms and conditions of the insurance held by your chosen removal and storage company. These terms and conditions will form the basis of the insurance cover you will benefit from as long as you declare the value of your effects to the removal and storage company and pay any additional fees they require.

Please read the summary of Terms and Conditions carefully before proceeding

Your Removers will take every care to protect your property. Unfortunately accidents can occur. This is why you are recommended to take advantage of the special arrangements made with leading insurance companies who underwrite the Removers and General policy. If you do not wish to benefit from the insurance then any responsibility the Removers may have to you for loss or damage will be governed by their Trading Conditions which may limit both the circumstances and amounts available for compensation.

Who are the Insurers?

The Removers and General policy is underwritten by AXA Corporate Solutions Assurance and other members of the Association of British Insurers.

How do I benefit from the Insurance?

This is quite simple. All you have to do is to accept the option shown on the Remover’s estimate or quotation form, check that you have inserted a correct valuation for your property, and to pay the Removers charges in full.

How do I value my Goods?

The insurance is not “new for old” but on an indemnity basis which means that you must declare the value of your property for their current used value taking into account their condition and age. It is essential that you do not under value your property as the settlement of any claim may be reduced.

Please do not ask your Remover for guidance about your valuation. They are not valuers, and the responsibility for declaring the value is yours

What will Insurers pay for?

The insurance covers loss or damage to your property whilst in the care of the Removers during removal and/or storage. Cover ceases as soon as your property is delivered to you.

Storage only : If you do not require collection and delivery from store, only utilising the self storage facility, or if you have independent access to your goods whilst they are in the self storage facility, then cover whilst in store is restricted and will limit the peril of Theft, as well as excluding totally the peril of Accidental Damage.

Are there any Exclusions?

Yes. Every insurance policy has exclusions. There is certain property that cannot be accepted for insurance and certain eventualities which are not insured. These exclusions and restrictions are clearly listed overleaf and you are recommended to familiarise yourself with these before proceeding.

Your attention is particularly drawn to the following exclusions and conditions, which are frequently misunderstood :-

- Exclusions 6 and 7, which limit Insurer’s liability for property which you pack yourself.
- Exclusion 8, which excludes the unexplained failure of electrical, electronic or mechanical items unless they have also suffered external physical damage.
- Exclusions 12 and 13, which limit and exclude insurers liability for loss, theft and accidental damage to goods that may occur in the self storage unit that you have independent access to.
- The “Pairs and Sets” condition, which limits policy liability to the value of a damaged item without reference to its value within the pair or set of which it is part.

All Exclusions and Conditions within the policy are of equal standing.

What if I have a claim?

You should report any loss or damage to your Remover as soon as possible and no later than 7 days after taking delivery. You will be issued with a claim form to be returned to the Remover, who will send it to the insurers claims settling agents, Removal Claims Service.

Claim notification period

The insurance requires that claims be notified to the Remover within seven days of delivery. Loss or damage noticed at the time of delivery should be notified at that time. Any other item of claim should be notified within seven days.

This notification period is important both for you and insurers. It is essential that a close link is maintained between a claim and the incident giving rise to that claim. Where a claim is notified late, it may be more difficult for insurers to connect your claim to the removal &/or storage.

How will my claim be assessed?

Your claim will be dealt with in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the policy. The basis of settlement will be the cost of replacement, repair or monetary compensation at insurers option. In calculating a settlement the current used value of the lost or damaged property, after deduction for age, wear and tear will be taken into account.

If a policy excess is shown in the conditions overleaf, it will be deducted from your claim settlement.

If you need to submit a claim....

Your claim will be dealt with as quickly as possible. You can help by:

- Only claiming for items and loss or damage covered by the policy,
- Being realistic with the amounts you are claiming, and
- Submitting repair estimates with your claim form.

Complaints Procedure

If you have any cause for complaint you should, in the first instance contact RCS at the address below. If RCS are unable to resolve your complaint they will advise you of the organisation to contact to progress your complaint on to the next stage of the procedure.

CONDITIONS

Under Insurance

If the value declared is less than the actual value of your property at the time of loss, then you will only be entitled to be paid that proportion of the loss which the value declared bears to the value of the property removed and/or stored.

Pairs and Sets

It is the intention to pay the actual value of individual items. It is not the intention to pay for items which are not affected. If, therefore, a claim is made for an item which is part of a pair or set, then Insurers will only pay the actual value of that item in isolation. The payment will be made without reference to any particular value the item might have acquired simply because it is part of a pair or set.

Insurers Rights

Subject to payment of the actual value of a damaged item by Insurers, they may at their discretion take over ownership of the property. No property may be abandoned to Insurers.

Fraud

If a claim is fraudulent in any way, it will not be paid. Your cover will be deemed not to have attached and no charge will be refunded.

Law and Jurisdiction

The parties are free to choose the law applicable to this policy. The Insurers choose that the Insureds policy will be governed by the law of England unless the Insured and the Insurer agree otherwise. This policy is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales.

Claims Notification

Any claim must be advised in detail to the Remover in writing within seven days of your removal or delivery from store. However if you arrange your own collection from store then any claim must be notified at the time of handing over.
